

Botero Exhibition Program of Education July 7 - July 14, 2010

Education programs for the exhibition Fernando Botero provide children the opportunity to observe Botero's paintings through the themes and painting style by participating in fun workshops in the atelier and exhibition space.

The activities program, which constitutes of three main sections, has been created for four different age groups. Program will be supported by various activities, which are developed appropriately to each age group.