SMALL INSTRUMENTS

Found by Pawel Romanczuk in 2006, Male Instrumenty (Small Instruments) are a band exploring new sounds using a wide array of small instruments. The instruments used in their sonic experiments feature an ever expanding array of professional instruments, sound toys made for children or naive in nature, strange musical inventions as well as a whole array of small items that aren't really instruments but do make a sound. Children in the "Small Instruments" workshop will explore their imagination and create an unusual music and their instrument by using different objects, such as toys, cans, etc.

15 November Saturday 14:00 - 16:00

This program is presented on the occasion of the 600th anniversary of Poland-Turkey diplomatic relations.
